

Stroud District Council

Localism Act 2011

The Neighbourhood Planning (General) Regulations 2012
(As Amended)

Neighbourhood Designation

Stroud District Council is pleased to confirm that under the provisions of the Localism Act 2011 and Part 2 of The Neighbourhood Planning (General) Regulations 2012 (As Amended), the parish of

Brimscombe & Thrupp

in the District of Stroud and the County of Gloucestershire has been designated as a

Neighbourhood Area

and furthermore that

Brimscombe & Thrupp Parish Council

may act as the relevant body for the designated area with regards to the provisions of the above Regulations.

This designation was conferred under delegated authority on the 22th February 2016.

The area covered by this designation is that shown on the map submitted to Stroud District Council under Article 5(1)(a) of the above Regulations.
